The appeal brief filed on October 23, 2006 is not acceptable because the brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal. The brief also does not contain a concise statement of each ground of rejection presented for review. The brief also does not present an argument under a separate heading for each ground of rejection on appeal. Specifically, the brief fails to identify for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, six paragraph; and the brief fails to contain a statement for the ground of rejection for claim 13 as well as insufficiently list the other art references.
